Updates on the Seymour workshop weekend

Live updates from ComancheTown at LAL Sun 'N Fun

From CJ:

- Current weather in the LAL area is outrageous. They have been working all morning to secure everything.
- All airshows for the day have been cancelled.
- Russ Wright just texted that there is a heck of a storm in Ocala, just to the north, where it is raining sideways.
- We invite those who have been to past Sun 'N Funs to say what they liked and what they suggest.
- A review of the KSER event could take a little more time.

George Okst said:

- I put my portable on weather channel. They just lifted the tornado warning or tornado watch is still in effect until 3 PM.
- The risk of tornadoes has diminished, but still possibility of 60 mile an hour winds sideways, rain and severe thunder showers.
