Topic: Open Mic...Future of the Comanche

After the last two amazing Zoom topics, we are shifting gear this week to a more interactive format...

More than 100 people turned up for the Controlled Flight into Terrain series and stayed for the whole presentation!!

We are seeking input this week concerning your long-term concerns regarding the survival of the types and welfare of owners and pilots. Both the Comanches and the Short Wings are concerned about the loss of A&Ps.

Please bring your ideas, aspirations, and worries with you.

The ease with which ADs can catch us off guard has only lately become apparent, but we must always take the initiative. This ought to be instructive in every way. Bring your thoughts, and let's maintain interaction so that everyone feels like they can add something.
