

ComancheZOOM for January 20, 2022

TOPIC: Cameras in the Cockpit – Mike Ellis

This ComancheZOOM topic is on the use of in-flight video - super fun and exciting. Mike Ellis is a YouTuber who has made a fascinating series using in-flight cameras to record and analyze his flights. By reviewing his videos Mike has refined his landing techniques, V-speeds, and many other useful topics. In this Zoom on the use of in-flight video Mike will help you to have fun and improve your flying.

Mike's CZ will cover the equipment he uses and give sample costs and sources. He shows how to mount the cameras, hook up to audio, and capture each flight. Then keep watching for some of Mike's lessons learned. This is a great tool for pilots, students, and instructors alike!

Mike Ellis is CEO of energy acquisition consulting firm e-quantum.org, with clients ranging from large art museums to tiny non-profits. His Comanche videos can be found on his YouTube channel at youtube.com/channel/UCIW-Nkmdt1cHC\_DYTJGUjA or search YouTube for "Piper Comanche 250 "
