

ComancheZOOM for Thursday, Apr 16, 2026

Topic: Social Zoom, with possible input from Sun 'N Fun attendees

Everyone is scattered about this week. Some are at Lakeland FL for ComancheTown at Sun 'N Fun, others are stuck while on the way there, and still more decided not to attend. So, those of us who can join the Zoom can talk of anything of interest - your reaction to the MAC workshop last weekend in Wilmington NC, your arrival (or non-arrival) and camping at Lakeland, your results on "Finding the numbers" after Vlad's Zoom workshop, or any other questions or comments you may have.

Hopefully anyone at Lakeland who can get on the Zoom can give the rest of us a taste of that environment and maybe share some photos or live video. This will be a purely social Zoom - if you want to talk about something then so shall we.

Alan Cheak shared a number of photos of Comanches at Sun 'N Fun's ComancheTown. In all there were about 27 Comanches there.

Next Joe Hand and Rosemarie showed photos of the pilots and planes that participated in the MAC clinic at Wilmington NC the weekend preceding Sub 'N Fun. There was a great mix of pilot/owners, mechanics, and friends who made the trip. Lots of great quality teaching going on.
