Tonight's Topic: First, Fly the Plane with Bill Jackson and others

What do you do when things start to go to Hell in a handbasket? Fly the plane! Bill Jackson and others tell us about their adventures (or misadventures) in their Comanches over the years. Enjoy these stories, told with wry humor, and learn the lessons from them.

The discussion covered many occasions when the PIC (the one person really in control of a flight) asked ATC for help when dealing with a problem – weather build ups, airspace limitations, sub-standard aircraft performance – preventing compliance with ATC expectations. One example was the Cruise Clearance, described here from the Jeppesen “Advanced Flying Manual”.

This Zoom will turn into a two-part event, and (due to a slight SNAFU in the planning) the second half on Nov 17 will be eligible for Wings credit. Please register at wings.northeastcomanche.org (Wings credit is not available for this week)
